

Rules of Conduct for Fishery Management Council Members

Fishery Council Members Include:

- Individuals nominated by the Governor and appointed by the Secretary of Commerce (Public Members);
 - Regional director of National Marine Fisheries Service;
 - State officials
-

Public Members of Fishery Management Councils

- Subject to Federal conflict of interest statutes;
- File Statement of Financial Interests (NOAA Form 88-195)

What to Report

Any interest in a harvesting,
processing, lobbying, advocacy,
or marketing activity

This includes stock, ownership interest, or employment with:

- Any entity that engages in harvesting, processing, or marketing; or
- Any entity that provides services to someone engaged in harvesting, processing, or marketing

Your financial interests include the interests of:

- Your spouse;
- Your minor children; or
- An organization in which you serve as an officer, partner, or employee

Special Exception

With disclosure, you may fully participate as a Council member in a matter in which you have an interest in a harvesting, processing, lobbying, advocacy, or marketing activity

UNLESS

- The matter at issue will have an expected and substantially disproportionate benefit to your financial interest; or
- Is a matter primarily of individual concern

Expected and Substantially Disproportionate Benefit

- Greater than 10% interest in the total harvest, or in the processing or marketing of the total harvest; or
- Greater than 10% ownership in the vessels within the fishery

Matters Primarily of Individual Concern

A matter that affects a small number of identified or easily identifiable parties

Bribes and Similar Payments

You may not accept anything of value for taking action or failing to take action as a
Council member

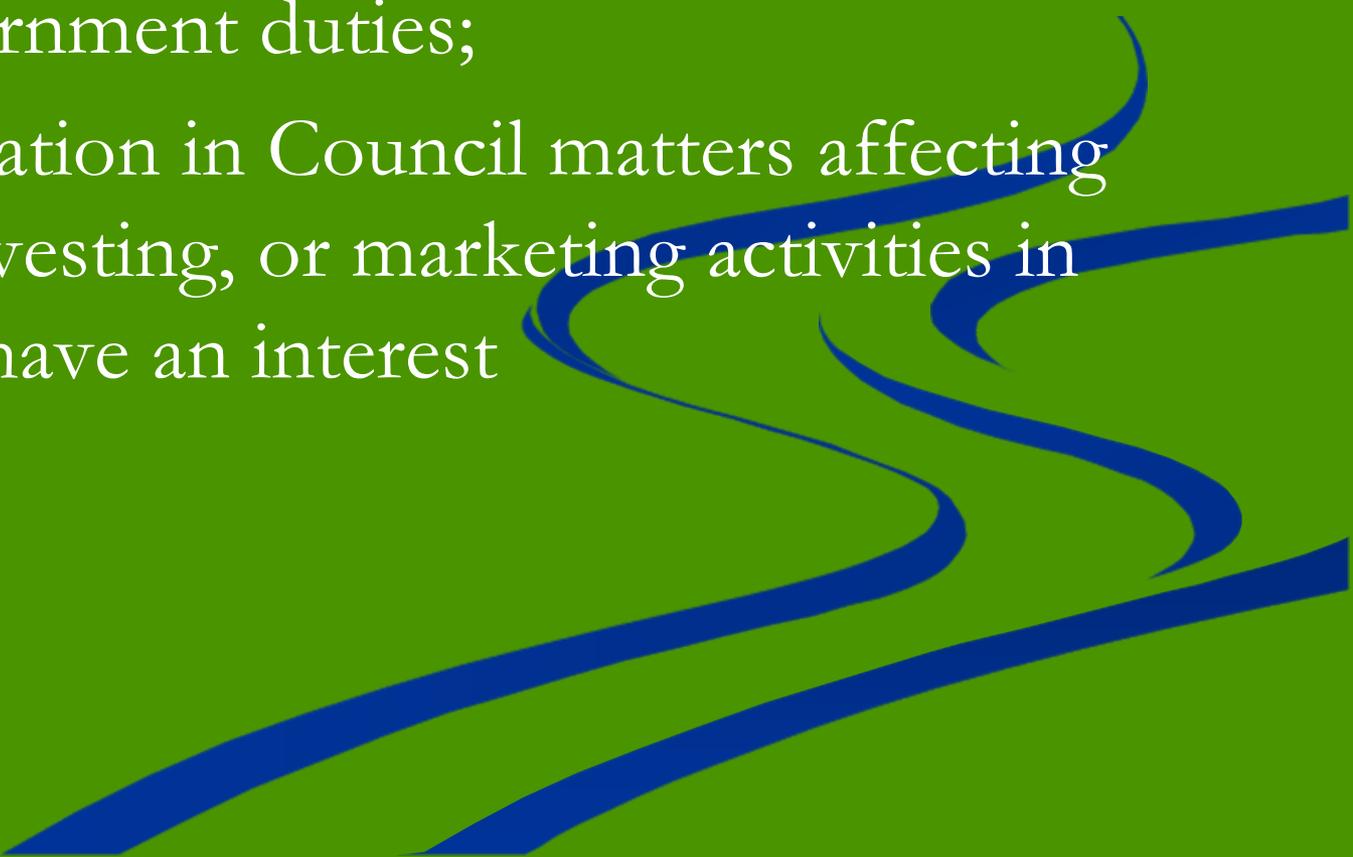

Lobbying the Government

You may not communicate (in your personal capacity) with any Federal agency or Federal court on behalf of others concerning a specific-party matter on which you participated as a Council member

After Leaving Council Service

- You may not communicate with any Federal agency or Federal court on behalf of others concerning a specific-party matter on which you participated as a Council member;
- Additional two-year bar on specific-party matters even if you did not participate;
- No outside use of non-public information

Federal Officials of Fishery Management Councils

- Subject to same conflict of interest restrictions regarding your Council duties that apply to your other Government duties;
 - No participation in Council matters affecting fishing, harvesting, or marketing activities in which you have an interest
-
- A decorative graphic consisting of several thick, wavy blue lines that flow from the bottom left towards the top right, partially overlapping the text of the second bullet point.

Federal Standards of Conduct

- Gift restrictions;
 - Conflicts based on appearance concerns;
 - Outside activities
-
- A decorative graphic consisting of several thick, blue, wavy lines that flow from the bottom left towards the right side of the slide, partially overlapping the text area.

State Officials of Fishery Management Councils

Subject to state statutes or regulations and
Council rules on conduct

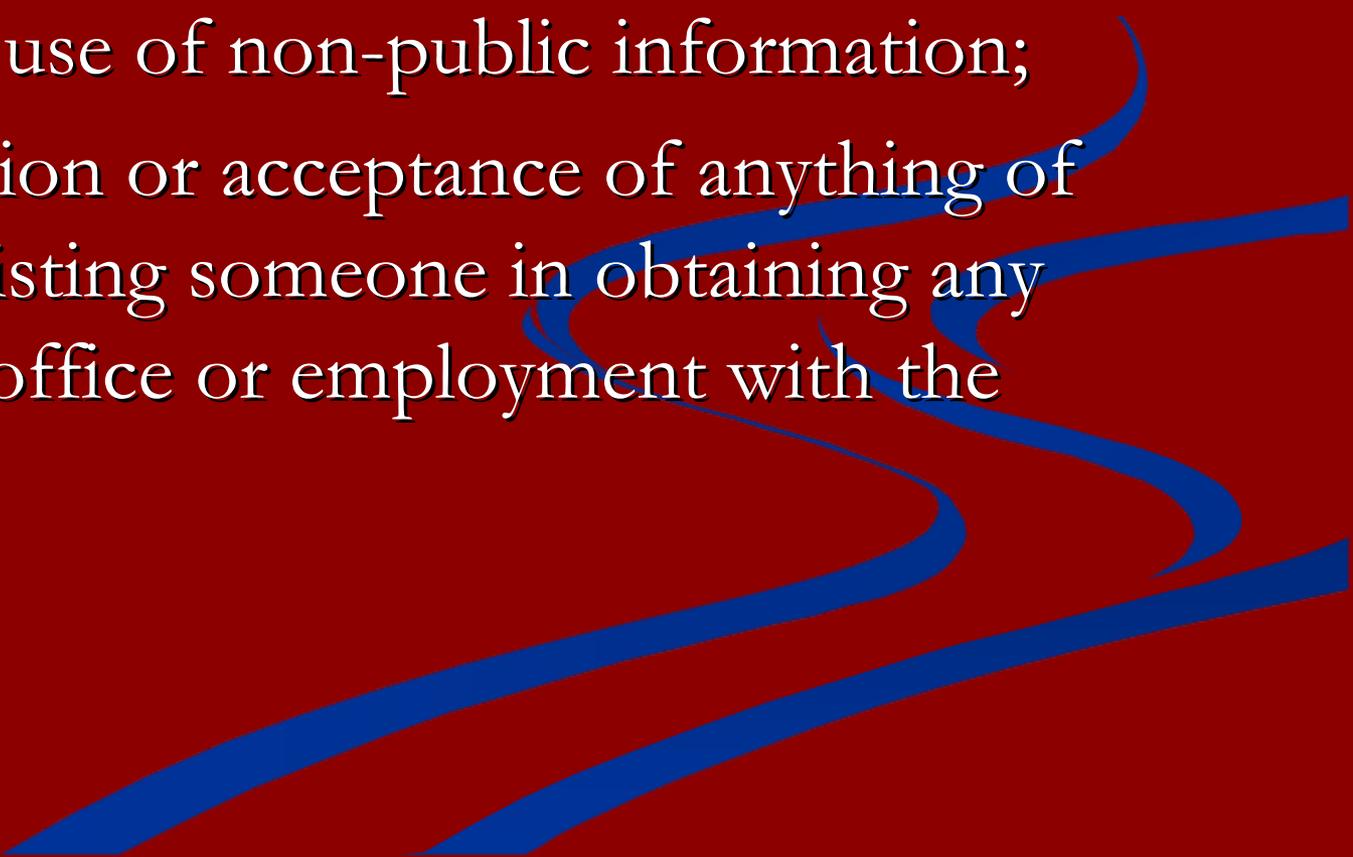

Restrictions on State Officials

- No solicitation or acceptance of anything of value in assisting someone in obtaining any appointive office or employment with the Council;
- No participation in a matter that is primarily of individual concern or a policy matter likely to affect your financial interests;
- No outside use of non-public information

Fishery Management Council Staff

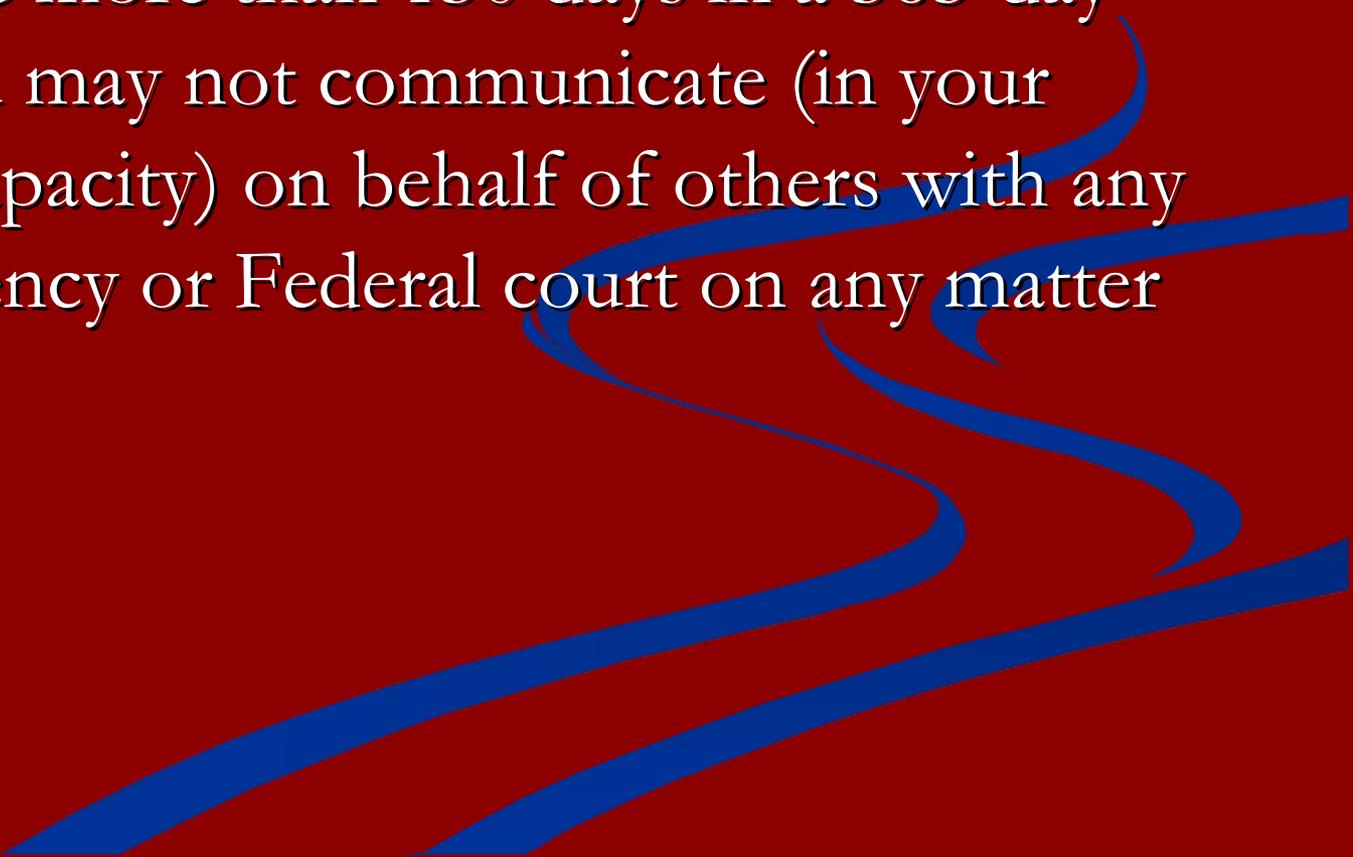

- Subject to Federal conflict of interest statutes and Council rules on conduct;
 - No participation in Council matters affecting fishing, harvesting, or marketing activities in which you have an interest
-
- The bottom right portion of the slide features several thick, blue, wavy lines that sweep across the background, creating a dynamic, fluid visual effect.

Restrictions on Staff

- No financial interest that interferes with the fair and impartial conduct of your duties;
 - No outside use of non-public information;
 - No solicitation or acceptance of anything of value in assisting someone in obtaining any appointive office or employment with the Council
-

Lobbying the Government

If you serve more than 130 days in a 365-day period, you may not communicate (in your personal capacity) on behalf of others with any Federal agency or Federal court on any matter

The background of the slide features several thick, wavy blue lines that sweep across the bottom and right side of the page, creating a dynamic, abstract design.

After Leaving Council Service

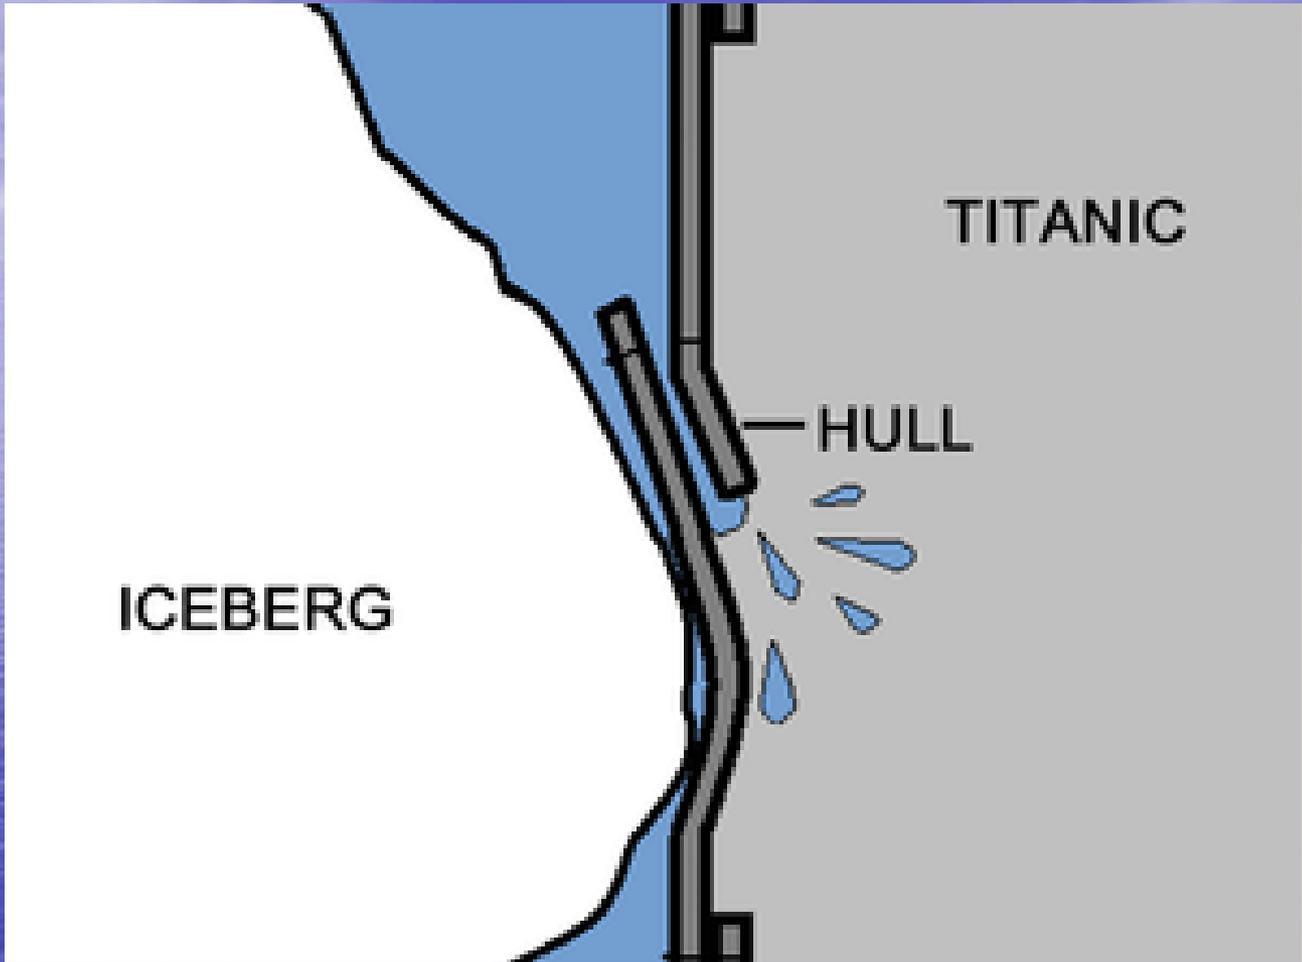

- You may not communicate with any Federal agency or Federal court on behalf of others concerning a specific-party matter on which you participated as a Council employee;
- Additional two-year bar on specific-party matters under your supervision, even if you did not participate;
- No outside use of non-public information

Rose and Jack enjoying their cruise on the Titanic

LOOK OUT!

Questions

- Contact the NOAA Regional Attorney responsible for advising your Council;
- State agency responsible for providing ethics advice; or
- Ethics Law and Programs Division at (202) 482-5384